RV Business Solutions Advises on the Sale of Middleton's RV

Highlands Ranch, CO— February 1, 2022 — RV Business Solutions, a leading buy-sell advisor to RV dealers, was the exclusive sell-side advisor to Tim and Connie Middleton in the sale of their RV dealership, Middleton's RV, to the Salt Lake City based Haugen RV Group, according to a release.

"When Connie and I decided to sell our business, it created a big dilemma for us. Who do we sell to? Who would be a good match for our dealership, our employees, and our customers? And if we sell, we want the new owners to take care of our customers and employees the way we always have. Connie and I had a prospective buyer in mind when Mike and Scott first talked to us, and we looked to them to help us close the deal. Through that process, however, they found the perfect match for us with the Haugen RV Group. By way of their reputation, both from customers and employees, Jason Haugen and the Haugen RV team seemed to have a similar business philosophy, making this a more comfortable decision for us. Mike and Scott's professionalism, around-the-clock work ethic, and vast RV industry knowledge, connections, and experience were not only critical in finding the right buyer for us, but also in helping us maximize the value of our business." said Tim Middleton, owner of Middleton's RV.

"We appreciate the opportunity to represent Tim and Connie in the sale of their dealership," said Scott Degnan, Partner at RV Business Solutions. "We wish nothing but the best for Tim and Connie as they move on to the next chapter in the wonderful lives they have built for themselves and their family."
